A Peek at San Mateo County's History

This is a book of naturalization records, therefore, this is a tiny peek at the populating rather than the politics of San Mateo County.

The area was first populated by immigrants from the east...the Ohlone settled the area with its great oak trees, grassy hills and constant supply of seafood, and dwelt unhindered for hundreds of years. The first Europeans arrived in 1769 with the Portola Expedition. Their discovery of San Francisco Bay further opened the doors for missionaries and Spanish settlers. California was part of Mexico from 1822 to 1846. Small Ohlone settlements gave way to vast Ranchos granted to the favored few.

With the end of the Mexican American war came the expansion of the United States to the Pacific Ocean. The resulting immigration of new inhabitants was slow at first and most were already U.S. citizens looking for new opportunities. Then came the Gold Rush. Vast numbers of peoples flooded through the port of San Francisco and overland. Some were U.S. citizens, many more were new immigrants who saw a chance of making their fortune. While many rushed to the hills, in search of gold itself, others, perhaps the wiser, set up shop in San Francisco and the surrounding areas, waiting for the gold to come to them by way of those who worked to find it.

Timber became a necessity and the hills contained a steady supply. Halfway down the peninsula on the bay side, the town of Redwood City (originally Mezesville) started as a lumber port in the 1840's. By the early 1850's it was bustling with shipbuilding and other associated activities. Buildings sprang up along what are now Broadway and Main Streets.

Although an effort to create a county on the peninsula named Raymundo failed in

Pioneer Store - 1901

1855, but by 1856, the San Francisco area had grown so populous that the state legislature passed The Consolidation Act, creating the city/county of San Francisco, and establishing the new county of San Mateo from all the rural areas that had been San Francisco. Population was approximately 2500. The political intrigue of the formation of San Mateo County makes for interesting reading. Be sure to check the sources listed in the bibliography. In the end Redwood City was chosen as the capital and the county government was underway.

By 1860 the population of San Mateo County had only grown to 3214 (684 families). If one were to judge by the early naturalization records created in San Mateo county courts, the majority of immigrants during the time period before 1880 were originally subjects of Great Britain (Ireland, Scotland and England). However, it is probably important to keep in mind that these would be the immigrants who were most likely to become naturalized, because they spoke the English language as their native tongue and were most likely to feel comfortable having a say in the workings of the government. The actual immigration picture might have been very different.

Checking the period from 1880 to 1890, there is a growing percentage of Hispanic names. The need for food for the area drew farmers. The coast had a large Portuguese population. A smattering of French names, and a growing number of Italians also could be found with the ever high number of Irish and other British immigrants.

The picture doesn't change towards the turn of the century and on to 1906. There were a smattering of immigrants requesting naturalization from Scandinavia, Germany etc, but the majority were still from Great Britain, Iberia and Italy. In all more than 2000 persons were naturalized in the San Mateo County Courts between 1856 and 1906. This doesn't count the wives and children who automatically became citizens with their husbands/fathers.

One or two of these early immigrants, possibly filed papers in the storehouse on the banks of Redwood Creek, directly behind Quong's Laundry. In 1858, courthouse #1 was dedicated on land that Simon Mezes, the man who had founded Redwood City, donated, encompassing an entire city block between the Embarcadero and the County Road (now El Camino Real). Courthouse #1 was replaced in 1882 with courthouse #2. Courthouse #3 was built in 1905 all on the same city block

Petitions/ Certificates

Prior to the change of laws in 1906 the San Mateo Courts did not appear to have a separate petition and certificate system. You will find that most of the records in this volume have the same date for the petition and the certificate . There is no separate certificate number.

The Petition section on the following pages includes
Date of Petition - Volume Number - Page Number - Petition Number

- ✓ The Petitions that were filed before September 25 1906 are contained in 5 books numbered 1A to 5A that are approximately 11 ½ by 18 .
- ✓ Volume 1A contains records from 1880 to 1892, there are separate sections for Minor petitions (1880-1888) and soldier petitions (1880-1901). The following numbers have been skipped or voided 73, 81, 135, 152, 233, 263 and 264, last number is 271.
- ✓ Volume 2A contains records from 1903 to 1905.. The following pages have petitions that have been voided skipped or canceled: 53, 80,89,113,135,168,173,177. The final record is on page 177
- ✓ Volume 3A contains records from 1892 to 1903.
- ✓ Volume 4A is 8x14 rather than 11/12 x 8 and includes records from 1868 to 1876. Most of the book is empty.
- ✓ Volume 5A covers the years 1888 - 1903, the following pages have voided, skipped or canceled records: 52, 232, 233.
- ✓ These early petitions are usually a half page in length and contain little useful information beyond full name and where born.

The Certificate Section on the following pages contains the following information:

Date of Certificate - Certificate Number - Envelope # (A)

The earliest certificates were not bound into books, and there are no petition records that we located. Copies of certificates are located in two metal file drawers (A above) containing 401 envelopes. They are labeled as true copies of Certificate of Citizenship. At least 15 individuals are included in two envelopes each. In some cases there is a Declaration of Intention in the envelope as well.

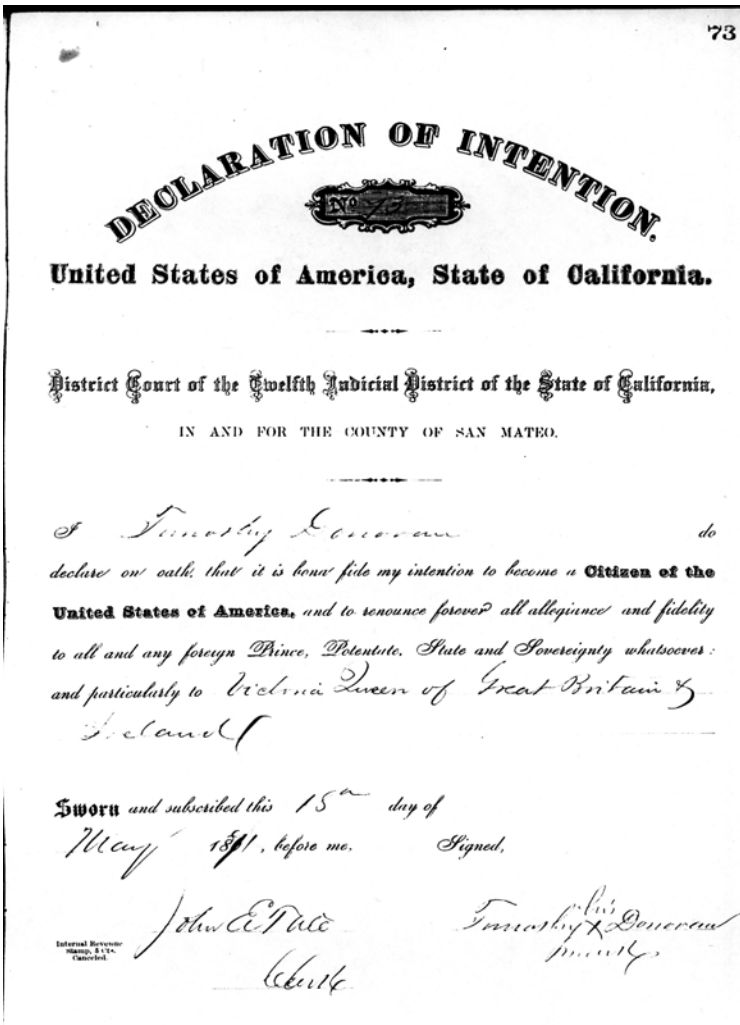

Prior to Sept. 25 1906 there was no recorded certificate number on the petition. The only certificate numbers recorded in this volume are for petitions after that date. They are listed when the Declaration of Intention was filed in San Mateo County prior to that date

There are two boxes of stubs from Naturalization Certificates. The boxes are dated 1900-1918, but are not inclusive of all records filled during those dates. We did not use these stubs for the indexing project, but they might be worth checking if you feel there is a missing certificate.

Declarations of Intentions

Name	Date	Petition			Date	Certificate			Intention				Minute Book
		Vol.	Pg.	#		#	A	B	Date	Vol.	Pg.	#	V.	Pg	Ct.

Declarations of Intention filed in San Mateo County
Envelope(B) - Date of Intention - Volume Number - Page Number - Intention Number

Declarations of Intention Filed Elsewhere
Envelope (B)- Date of Intention - Place that Intention was filed

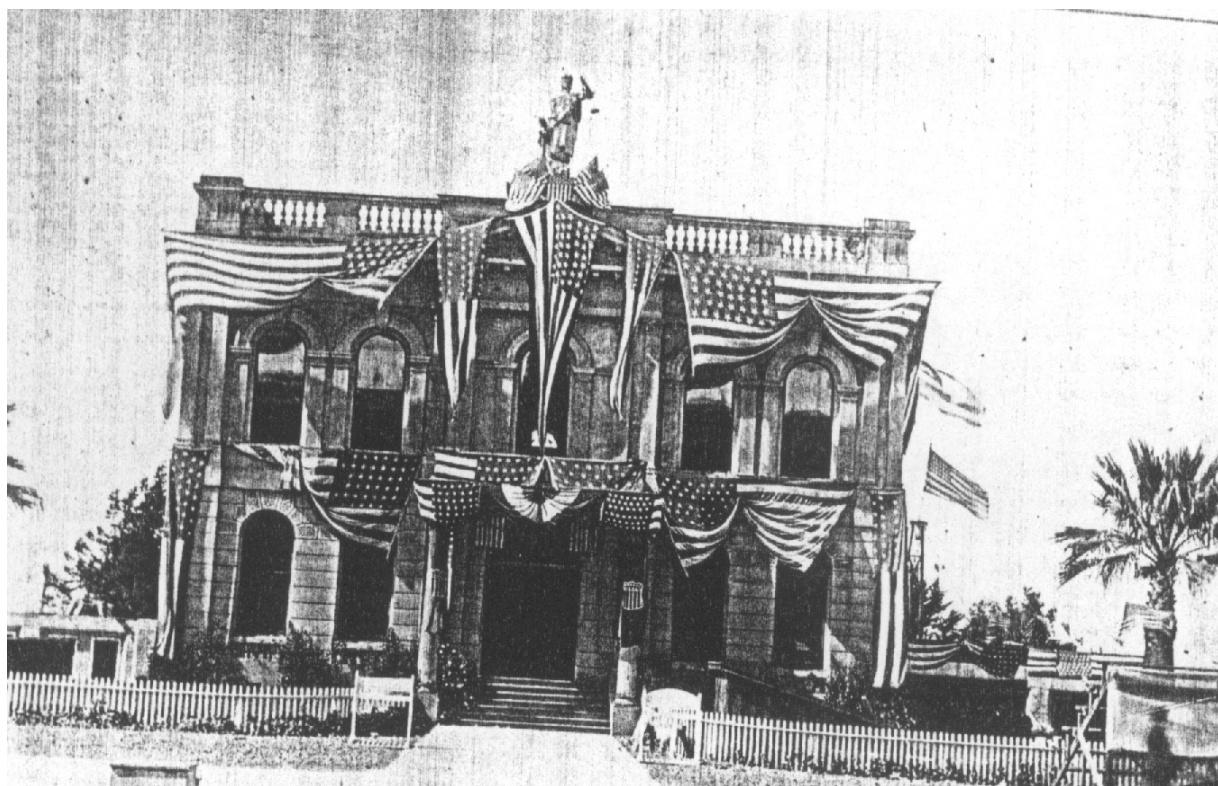

- ✓ San Mateo County Declarations of Intention for this period are contained in 4 bound books numbered 1A to 4A
- ✓ 1A no numbers 92 ,188 ,189,192,236 ,238 ,264 numbering ends at 298
- ✓ 2A Numbers 44, both on 59, 69 and 134 are voided
- ✓ 3A 197and198 are missing or unused. The numerical sequence is faulty as directly after 239 is 340 . The last number is 355.
- ✓ 4A contains 1 to 93 only
- ✓ There are two metal file drawers(B) containing more than 600 surrendered Declarations of Intention to Become a Citizen. Some of these were filed in San Mateo County but many were filed in other jurisdictions.
- These early declarations contain little biographical information, but can help you locate an ancestor in a certain place at a particular time.
- While we limited information in most cases to records filed in San Mateo County. We felt that including information on where the original Declaration of Intention was filed might help you locate your ancestors earlier residences and perhaps the original port of entry. We wish you luck with your hunt.

Court Volume, Page, Court that created the record

The minute books are in the hands of the courts that created them. We did not have access to those records. All references here were taken from notations on petitions and on envelopes that were indexed. The notation C in the final column stands for County Superior Court while the D stands for federal District Court. In many cases there was no indication indicating which court. You can probably surmise which court by comparing with other records. Without the records in hand we did not make the assumptions.

It is likely that all you will find in the court records is a list of names of those naturalized on a particular day, but if there were problems you might find more information. Don't neglect this source, especially if you are missing vital information on your family.
