

Dear Sir: On Saturday April 6th 1889 we will offer without reserve to the highest bidder the heretofore reserved portion of the Howard Estate situated in a central part of the beautiful suburban Town of San Mateo, known as the Western Addition. Streets graded; Water piped; Shade and ornamental trees line the Avenues and Streets; Magnificent country seats and beautiful suburban homes surround the property. Schools, churches, and social advantages are unsurpassed.

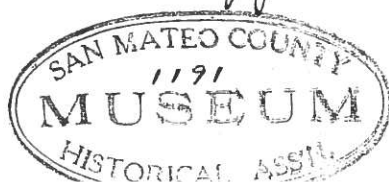

The offering is without question the most desirable one ever made in the State.

San Mateo is now reached by fast train in 35 minutes and the time will soon be reduced to 22 minutes.

This property must soon double and quadruple the present selling price. Send for Map etc. to

P.S. Round trip fare. 50¢
